Tiger farm clubs contributed a winning margin to the American League's domination of minor league baseball in 1974.

A survey by The Sporting News disclosed that in minor league rivalry, American League farm teams won 3,398 games and lost 3,166 for a .518 percentage last season while National League affiliates were 3,328 to 3,479 and .488.

The first seven most-successful farm systems represented American League clubs and the Tigers were among eight from their league with favorable won-lost balances. Tiger farms won 299 and lost 296 — with one first, one second, two thirds and one fourth among their final standings.

Also significant was the production of Tiger prospects at Evansville, in its first year as Detroit's top farm. By the end of the season, the Triplets had sent 12 players to Tiger Stadium.

Two managerial changes were made for 1975, with Les Moss, former major league catcher and veteran minor league pilot, joining the organization to take over at Montgomery and Jim Leyland moving from there to Clinton.

John Grodzicki continues as roving pitching coach.

SCOUTING SYSTEM

WILLIAM R. LAJOIE ..... Director of Player Procurement
EDWARD G. KATALINAS ..... Coordinator of Scouting

In a radical departure from previous practice, the Tigers in late 1974 became a member of the Major League Scouting Bureau, which has put together a staff of 66 scouts throughout the United States to do the spade work for participating clubs going into the semi-annual baseball drafts.

Information the scouts gather is fed into a computer, then relayed by a sophisticated transmission system to the teams. Headquarters are in Newport Beach, Calif., where Jim Wilson, former general manager of the Milwaukee Brewers, is in charge as executive director.

However, the Tigers additionally have retained a staff of six full-time scouts of their own to evaluate recommendations of the bureau's agents. They are:

Blackburn, Wayne
1414 Offner St.
Portsmouth, Ohio 45662

Miller, James
1525 Santa Inez Dr.
San Jose, Calif. 95125

Prentice, Bob
167 Birkdale Rd.
Scarborough, Ont., Canada

Skaff, Frank
2449 Springlake Dr.
Timonium, Md. 21093

Tighe, Jack
14159 Cleveland
Spring Lake, Mich. 49456

Wiencek, Richard
1611 Tulane Rd.
Claremont, Calif. 91711

Rick Ferrell, vice-president of the Tigers, Skaff and Tighe also are assigned to scout professional teams at the major and minor league levels.

In the Michigan-Ohio-Ontario area, the Tigers also will receive assistance from seven others in conducting clinics, handling tryout camps and making public appearances. They include Reno Bertoia, Windsor; Jim Command, Grand Rapids; Rudy Furchak, Fraser; Herm Kander, Toledo; John Skurski, Detroit; Warren Stephens, Pontiac; and Bob Sullivan, Grand Rapids.

SPRING TRAINING FACTS

The Tigers have trained at Lakeland since 1934, first at Henley Field and since 1966 at Marchant Stadium, a mile north. The all-concrete grandstand at Marchant Stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and in 1972 the first night game was played there under a new $160,000 set of lights.

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers' minor-league training site since 1953. A plush, three-story, fireproof dormitory featuring air-conditioning, carpeted rooms and lounges on each floor, was added to the Tigertown complex in 1971. It houses 200 minor league players and officials. The $400,000 structure was financed by the Tigers and the City of Lakeland, with the city to be reimbursed for its contributions within 10 years.

The Marchant Stadium grandstand seats 4,075, including 450 box seats. The clubhouse accommodates up to 50 players in each club section with added quarters for umpires.

TIGER STADIUM FACTS

The capacity of Tiger Stadium is 54,220 seats. Official figures list 10,335 box seats; 21,172 reserved; 11,502 unreserved grandstand; and 11,211 bleacher seats.

Baseball has been played at the site since 1900, a year before the American League was born with the Tigers as a charter member. Known as Bennett Park at the time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938 and Tiger Stadium Jan. 1, 1961.

Fans acclaim Tiger Stadium as an ideal park for witnessing baseball action because of the close proximity of the stands to the playing field.

More than 10,000 square yards of sod are needed annually to repair the wear and tear of both baseball and football on the playing area. Sprinkling and drainage facilities are among the best and the latest-type field cover can be placed in less than a minute.

TIGERS ON THE AIR

The Tigers' games are aired by two broadcasting teams — selected games on television by George Kell, Larry Osterman and Don Kremer; all games on radio by Ernie Harwell and Paul Carey.

Originating station for the television network, new in 1975 but a pioneer in Tiger telecasting back in 1947, is Station WWJ-TV (channel 4). On radio, Station WJR (760) has been the originating station since 1965.

Kell was an American League infield star 14 years with the Tigers and four other teams and was 1949 batting champion before entering broadcasting to become one of the top play-by-play experts on the air. He broke in with a pre-game network show in 1958, moved into the Tiger booth in 1959 and has been there ever since, except 1964.

Osterman, sports director of Station WKZO-TV, Kalamazoo, since 1959, has been a member of the Tiger TV crew since 1967. Kremer, on the staff of the WWJ stations since 1960, started sharing the Tiger commentary assignment in 1975.

Harwell's broadcast background goes back to 1940 and he has been on the major league scene since 1948; describing the action for the Brooklyn Dodgers, New York Giants and Baltimore Orioles before coming to the Tigers in 1960.

Carey, new on the air for the Tigers in 1973, has been assistant sports director of Station WJR since 1958 but his air experience dates back to 1949.

FETZER 10th TO HEAD TIGERS

John E. Fetzer, sole owner of the Tigers since Nov. 14, 1961, is the 10th in line to hold the position of top executive. The nationally-prominent television-radio executive, with holdings in Michigan, Nebraska and Iowa, has taken an increasingly-active role in baseball administration since entering the game in 1956 as head of a syndicate purchasing the Tigers from the estate of the late W. O. Briggs. He currently is a member of the major league Executive Council and chairman of the American League planning committee.

Charter president of the Tigers when the American League won major status in 1901 was James D. Burns, also sheriff of Wayne County. In succeeding years, the post has been held by Samuel F. Angus (1902-1903), William H. Yawkey (1904-1906), Frank J. Navin (1907-1935), Walter O. Briggs (1936-1951), Walter O. Briggs, Jr. (1952-1956), Fred A. Knorr (1956), Harvey R. Hansen (1957-1959), William DeWitt (1960), and Fetzer since Oct. 11, 1960.

TIGERS IN WORLD SERIES

1907 — Chicago 4 games, Detroit 0 (Plus 12-inn. tie)

Manager Frank Chance's National League champions by 17½-game margin were easy winners over Hughie Jennings' tired Tigers, who nosed out Philadelphia by six points in bitter finishing drive. Tiger morale suffered when Catcher Charlie Schmidt failed to hold 9th-inning third strike which would have ended first game on winning note. Darkness brought 3-3 tie in 12 innings and Cubs, who stole 18 bases during series, went on to well-deserved triumph.

1908 — Chicago 4 games, Detroit 1

History repeated as Frank Chance's hard-hitting Cubs, one-game National League winners over New York, easily handled Hughie Jennings' Tigers, last-day victors over Chicago in American League. Tigers scored 15 runs in first three games, then were shut out twice. George Mullin won Detroit's only victory in third game with help of four hits by Ty Cobb.

1909 — Pittsburgh 4 games, Detroit 3

First World Series going limit was taken by Fred Clarke's Pirates when Babe Adams, unheralded rookie, surprisingly won three decisions over Hughie Jennings' battling Tigers as two teams alternated in winning. Honus Wagner batted .333 for Pirates in duel with Ty Cobb, who hit .231 in his last World Series. Bill Abstein, Pirate first baseman, fanned 10 times and was fired as soon as series ended.

1934 — St. Louis 4 games, Detroit 3

Tigers qualified with first American League pennant in 25 years under Mickey Cochrane's aggressive management but were nosed out by Frank Frisch's Cardinals in bitter series marked by final-game row in which Commissioner Landis removed Joe Medwick from game when Detroit fans showered field with garbage following Medwick's collision with Marv Owen, Tiger third baseman. Dean brothers, Dizzy and Paul, won two games each for Cards; Charlie Gehringer hit .379 for Tigers and Pepper Martin .355 for Cards.

1935 — Detroit 4 games, Chicago 2

Tigers won first World Championship under Mickey Cochrane's direction, vanquishing Charlie Grimm's Cubs despite loss of Hank Greenberg with broken wrist in third game. Tommy Bridges scored two mound victories, Alvin Crowder and Schoolboy Rowe one each for Tigers. In final game, Cochrane scored winning run on Goose Goslin's single, throwing delirious Detroit fans into wild celebration lasting all night.

1940 — Cincinnati 4 games, Detroit 3

Bill McKechnie's Reds, easy winners in regular season, gave National League its first World Series triumph since 1934 by edging out Del Baker's Tigers, next-to-last day pennant winners in American League. Bobo Newsom won twice for Tigers, despite father's death in Cincinnati hotel following first game, but lost finale while pitching with one day's rest. Tommy Bridges won other Detroit victory, Paul Derringer and Bucky Walters took two each for Reds.

1945 — Detroit 4 games, Chicago 3

Steve O'Neill's Tiger's, last-game pennant winners on grand slam homer by Hank Greenberg, just back from army, continued World Series hex over Charlie Grimm's Cubs in wartime atmosphere. Hank Borowy pitched shutout and Claude Passeau had one-hitter for Cubs but Hal Newhouser fanned 22 in series and won twice for Tigers. Greenberg had two homers, three doubles among his seven hits in series.

1968 — Detroit 4 games, St. Louis 3

After losing three of first four games, Mayo Smith's Tigers stormed back for three straight over Red Schoendienst's Cardinals as Mickey Lolich won three games. Al Kaline got chance in his first World Series after 16 years with Tigers when Smith broke up regular outfield by moving Mickey Stanley to shortstop to make room for Kaline. Denny McLain, Tigers' 31-game regular season winner, lost opening game when Bob Gibson fanned 17; split two later decisions.

TIGERS IN CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

1972 — Oakland 3 games, Detroit 2

Billy Martin's battling Tigers lost first two games to Dick Williams' A's at Oakland, won next two at Detroit but finally bowed by one run as American League got its first five-game championship. Tight pitching marked series with two shutouts and other three games decided by one run. Bert Campaneris, of A's, was fined and suspended at start of following season for throwing bat at Lerrin LaGrow when hit on ankle by Tiger pitcher in second game.

TIGERS IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

Detroit was member of National League from 1881 through 1888; dropped out of majors until 1901, to return as charter member of American League.

Tigers of 1887 won National League pennant by 3½ games, engaged St. Louis champions of American Association, in 15-game post-season series which was forerunner of World Series. Detroit won 10 of 15 games in cross-country tour.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEWS

All American League night games are subject to the following curfew regulations: No inning may be started after 1:00 a.m. (local time), but an inning started prior to 1:00 a.m. may be completed.

In Baltimore, however, local ordinances supersede the league curfew. In Baltimore only, all Saturday night games must cease at 11:59 p.m. (local time). On other nights of the week, no inning may be started after 11:59 p.m., but an inning started prior to 11:59 p.m. may be completed.

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOMERS

Fans at Tiger Stadium have seen nine inside-the-park home runs since 1965 and 12 since 1961. Mickey Lolich gave up the two most recent: to Brian Downing of the White Sox in 1973 and to Tom McCraw of the Indians in 1972.

TIGERS LEAD IN TRIPLE PLAYS

The Tigers can claim the triple play championship of the major leagues, according to Raymond J. Gonzalez, a baseball statistician from Woodside, N.Y., who has tracked down every triple play made since 1900.

His report shows the Tigers have made 30, followed by the Pirates 27, Cardinals 26, Indians, Red Sox and Cubs 25 each.

The Tigers of 1908 made two triple plays (both against the Red Sox) to start the historic run of three-ply killings and the 1911 Tigers had three to their credit.

Most recent on the books for the Tigers was July 15, 1969 at Washington. Ed Brinkman, who later played with the Tigers, was the Senators' batter in the mass wipeout, which was executed by Don Wert, Ike Brown and Bill Freehan.

FOUR 100-GAME WINNERS

Four Tiger teams have won 100 or more games in a season — and two of them failed to win pennants. Hughie Jennings' 1915 Tigers (100-54) finished 2½ games behind the Red Sox and Bob Scheffing's 1961 club (101-61) was eight lengths behind the Yankees, piloted by Ralph Houk. The 1934 Bengals (101-53), managed by Mickey Cochrane won a pennant but lost the World Series to the Cardinals. Mayo Smith's 1968 Tigers (103-59) went all the way and defeated St. Louis for the World Championship.

CLEARING THE ROOF

Between 1938, when Tiger Stadium was rebuilt along its present lines, and 1956 only one home run was hit over the roof. That was delivered by Ted Williams in 1939, his rookie season in the American League.

Since 1956, the total has been pushed to 13, with 11 over the right field roof and two over the more-distant left field roof.

A number of other blows would have cleared the roof if the ball had not hit one of the light standards and bounced back to the playing field. Most notable in that category was hit by Reggie Jackson during the 1971 All-Star Game (July 13). It is estimated the ball would have travelled more than 600 feet if it had not hit the transformer housing on the light tower on the roof above the 370-foot mark.

The 1969 roof-clearing homer credited to Jim Northrup bounced back on the field — but only after clearing the top of the roof before striking an obstruction on the other side.

Fans recall a number of long home runs hit out of the stadium before it was remodelled into a complete double-decker. The most historic of these was the 700th home run of Babe Ruth's career on July 13, 1934. The ball cleared a wall in right field and rolled nearly two blocks down Plum Street, to be retrieved some 800-850 feet from home plate by a youngster who received a $20 bill (borrowed from a teammate) for returning the ball to The Bambino.

TIGERS AMONG DECADE LEADERS

During the past decade (1965-74) only four teams in the two major leagues have compiled better won-lost records than the Tigers and only three top them in average attendance for the decade.

The Tiger victory log for the past 10 years shows 874-740 for a .541 percentage. Baltimore .588, Cincinnati .557, Los Angeles .548 and Pittsburgh .546 are the only teams ahead of Detroit.

In attendance, the Tigers show an average of 1,516,240 per season for the decade. Their average is topped only by Los Angeles (2,059,213), New York Mets (1,994,365) and St. Louis (1,658,208).

The Tigers are one of 12 teams out of the 24 in the American and National League which have won division, league or world championships during the 1965-74 era. At the rate of one point for each title, the Tigers' one division, one league and one world championship rank them 7th among the 12 teams — with Baltimore (11 points) and Oakland (10) the pacesetters. However, in average attendance, Baltimore ranks 15th and Oakland 20th.

ANOTHER TURNOVER FOR TIGERS

With 15 new names on a 35-man spring roster, the Tigers effected a turnover of 43 per cent in manpower for 1975, following a 38 per cent change the year before and 35 per cent the year before that.

Eleven of the newcomers are products of the farm system and four were acquired in trades. With five vacancies on the off-season roster, 19 players (out of 39 a year ago) actually were removed from the list — eight traded, one sold, one released, two retired and seven returned to the minor leagues.

HOUK, Ralph George

Manager

Born: Lawrence, Kan. 8-9-19 (55) 5-11 195 B-R T-R (Catcher). Married: Betty Porter 6-3-48. Children: Donna, Dick & Robert. Residence: Pompano Beach, Fla.

Ralph Houk, who became the Tigers' 26th manager Oct. 11, 1973, is one of baseball's most successful managers.

In 11 seasons as manager of the New York Yankees, his teams won 944 games and lost 806 for a winning percentage of .539. At the time, that ranked Houk 14th among the 38 pilots of modern times (starting in 1901) who managed 10 years or more.

In Houk's totals are two seasons (1961 and 1963) of 100-plus winners; three straight AL champions (1961-62-63); and two World Champions (1961-62). For his accomplishments, Houk was twice (1961 and 1970) named Manager of the Year and was consistently rated by Yankee partisans with three other great New York managers — Miller Huggins, Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel.

Joining the Tigers was an abrupt change in the career of Houk, who spent 35 years in the Yankee organization, starting as a Class D catcher in 1939.

He was a player (minor and major league) 10 years (1939-52) with four years (1942-45) taken out for military duty during which he won battlefield promotion from private to major and was awarded the Silver Star. He was a coach five more years (1953-54 and 1958-60); minor league manager three seasons (1955-57); and general manager two years (1964 until May, 1966) — in addition to his 11 seasons (1961-63 and 1966-73) as field manager.

As a third-string catcher, Houk spent most of his playing days with the Yankees in the shadow of the bullpen. But he has been in the spotlight ever since becoming a manager.

HOUK, Ralph George

Manager

Born: Lawrence, Kan. 8-9-19 (55) 5-11 195 B-R T-R (Catcher). Married: Betty Porter 6-3-48. Children: Donna, Dick & Robert. Residence: Pompano Beach, Fla.

Ralph Houk, who became the Tigers' 26th manager Oct. 11, 1973, is one of baseball's most successful managers.

In 11 seasons as manager of the New York Yankees, his teams won 944 games and lost 806 for a winning percentage of .539. At the time, that ranked Houk 14th among the 38 pilots of modern times (starting in 1901) who managed 10 years or more.

In Houk's totals are two seasons (1961 and 1963) of 100-plus winners; three straight AL champions (1961-62-63); and two World Champions (1961-62). For his accomplishments, Houk was twice (1961 and 1970) named Manager of the Year and was consistently rated by Yankee partisans with three other great New York managers — Miller Huggins, Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel.

Joining the Tigers was an abrupt change in the career of Houk, who spent 35 years in the Yankee organization, starting as a Class D catcher in 1939.

He was a player (minor and major league) 10 years (1939-52) with four years (1942-45) taken out for military duty during which he won battlefield promotion from private to major and was awarded the Silver Star. He was a coach five more years (1953-54 and 1958-60); minor league manager three seasons (1955-57); and general manager two years (1964 until May, 1966) — in addition to his 11 seasons (1961-63 and 1966-73) as field manager.

As a third-string catcher, Houk spent most of his playing days with the Yankees in the shadow of the bullpen. But he has been in the spotlight ever since becoming a manager.

SIGNED by Tigers in June, 1961.

Although native of Michigan, spent prep years at Bishop Barry High School, St. Petersburg, Fla. and was all-around athletic star. Signed by Tigers for sizable bonus 1961 after sophomore year at Michigan, also played football there. Took less than two seasons to become Tigers' regular catcher; hit .300 in 1964, first Tiger catcher that high since Mickey Cochrane. Went on to attain highest lifetime fielding average in AL history (catchers in more than 1,000 games) by end of 1973 season. Won five straight Gold Glove trophies 1965-69 for fielding skill; selected for 10 straight All-Star games (1964-73). Set Tiger fielding record for catchers at .996 in 1965, broke own mark at .997 in 1970. Named Tiger of Year in 1967; caught all 15 innings of All-Star game that year. Set AL records for putouts (971), chances accepted (1050) and led league in games (138) and fielding (.994) in 1968. Hit by pitcher 44 times in 1967-68, setting AL record (24) in 1968. Tied ML record with 19 chances in game in 1969. Missed last 31 games in 1970 for back surgery, recovered strongly in 1971 with 21 HR (inc. three in game at Boston Aug. 9). Had Tigers' longest hitting streak (13 G), hit two grand slam HRs in 1972; missed 19 G with thumb injuries. Led AL catchers in fielding (.995) in 1973, 3rd time in career.

Split 1974 behind plate (63 G) and at 1B (65 G), closing fast at plate (.316, 15 HR, 48 RBI after July 6) to bat .297 and rank 10th in league. Hit only Tiger grand slam (at N.Y. Sept. 8). Broke own AL mark for lifetime putouts and set AL record for career chances accepted by catcher. Now among Tigers' Top Ten in three batting departments. (See tables Page 8).

SOME REGULATIONS

A player is considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 times at bat or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit, excluding time in military service.

A batting champion must have 502 or more actual or projected appearances at the plate. A pitching champion (ERA) must pitch 162 or more innings. A fielding champion must appear in 108 games at his position, except a catcher, who must appear in 81 games.

Player limit is 40 men from Sept. 1 to opening day of following season; then 25 until Sept. 1.

To determine the "magic number" in pennant race, compute the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

TO FIGURE BATTING AVERAGE

To determine a batting average, divide the number of hits by the number of times-at-bat.

ONLY THREE TEAMS TOP TIGERS

Only three teams in the American League enter the 1975 season with a total-victory margin over the Tigers: the Baltimore Orioles at 223-221, the Minnesota Twins at 111-105 and the New York Yankees at 788-728. The Tigers hold these margins over the other teams: Boston 778-728, California 127-89, Chicago 776-740, Cleveland 787-764, Kansas 40-32, Milwaukee 59-31 (inc. Seattle 1969), Oakland 198-150 (inc. K.C. 1955-67), and Texas 853-685 (inc. Wash. 1901-71).

KALINE, Albert William

Nickname: Al. Born: Baltimore, Md. 12-19-34 6-1 185 B-R T-R. Married: Madge Louise Hamilton 10-16-54. Children: Mark Albert 8-21-57; Michael Keith 6-30-62.

When Al Kaline pulled off his Tiger uniform for the last time on Oct. 2, 1974, eight days after collecting his 3,000th hit, he wrapped up a 22-year career (1953-1974) rivalled in Tiger annals only by that of Ty Cobb (1905-26).

Kaline played more games (2,834) and hit more home runs (399) than any Tiger in history. He finished second only to Cobb in: at-bats, hits, extra-base hits, total bases and runs batted in. He was topped only by Cobb and Charlie Gehringer in runs scored and doubles.

Among players still active at the time of Kaline's retirement, he trailed Hank Aaron alone in three categories; Aaron and Frank Robinson in five others.

Kaline, who finished with a total of 3,007 hits, was the 12th man in major league history to reach 3,000 in his career — five from the American League, seven from the National League. At the time, nine of the 12 already were in the Baseball Hall of Fame; the other three not yet eligible because of the five-year non-participation rule.

When Kaline achieved his 3,000th hit, in his native city of Baltimore, Sept. 24, 1974, with a fourth-inning double off the Orioles' Dave McNally, he was the first Tiger to reach that mark since Cobb in 1921; first in the American League since Eddie Collins in 1925; first in the majors since Roberto Clemente in 1972.

Other outstanding achievements marked Kaline's career almost from its start June 25, 1953.

In 1955, he was the youngest batting champion in American League history, by the margin of one day over Cobb, with a .340 average. That was one of 10 seasons in which he was the Tigers' leading hitter.

Kaline won 10 Gold Glove awards for fielding skill in the outfield.

He was a member of the American League All-Star team 15 years, seven times as a starter and 13 years (1955-1967) in consecutive order. His final All-Star selection was in his final season, which he spent entirely as a designated hitter, never pulling on a glove in a game.

With 12 hits for 37 times at bat in 16 All-Star games, Kaline finished with a .324 All-Star average and he never made an error in an All-Star game.

Between 1954 and 1972, he played at least 100 games a season for 19 consecutive years to tie Tris Speaker's American League record.

Between May 15, 1970 and July 2, 1972, he played 242 consecutive games in the outfield without an error, setting an American League record, including a perfect 1971 campaign which tied the major league record.

Kaline hit 20 or more home runs in nine seasons on the way to his club record of 399.

In the biggest single game of his career (vs. Kansas City, April 17, 1955), he walked, collected four straight hits which included three home runs (two in one inning) and popped out. His two homers and eight total bases in an inning tied major league records.

Kaline called participation in the 1968 World Series the high spot of his baseball life, coming after 16 years of waiting. In the Tigers' comeback victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, he had 11 hits (most by a Tiger), batted .379 (second among the Tigers), hit two homers and drove in eight runs.

Kaline's achievement came in the face of numerous injuries which caused him to miss the equivalent of one full season of action:

In 1959, out 60 days with broken cheek bone; in 1962, out two months with broken collar bone; in 1965, out long period with rib injuries, operation at end of season to correct childhood foot malformation; in 1967, out 30 days with broken finger; in 1968, out 35 days with broken arm; in 1972, sidelined with hamstring muscle pull; in 1973, more time out with rib injury; in 1974, played over off-season knee injury and sore leg muscles.

Many honors came Kaline's way, highlighted by Al Kaline Day, Aug. 2, 1970 at Tiger Stadium and another less-elaborate commemoration, Sept. 29, 1974 of his 3,000th career hit.

Personal awards included:

In 1974, Joseph E. Cronin Trophy awarded by American League to its player of the year; in 1973, Roberto Clemente Award given by Commissioner Kuhn to

The close of Kaline's career was the No. 1 sports story of 1974 in Michigan, according to the annual poll conducted by the Associated Press, which called the event "the end of Detroit's 21-year love affair with Al Kaline."

Few players have gained success as quickly as Kaline. A prep and sandlot star in his native Baltimore, he was sought by all clubs in 1953 but signed by the Tigers for a reported $30,000 in salary and bonus.

He joined the club upon graduation from Southern High School in Baltimore and never played a game in the minor leagues. Pressed into regular outfield duty at the start of 1954 because of an injury to Steve Souchock, Kaline hit a promising .276 that year, became the league batting champion in 1955 and kept going.

He became the Tigers' first $100,000-a-year player in 1972, after turning down a similar offer a year earlier "because I didn't feel like I deserved it."
